Some of the Principal Articles of the Treaty of Peace between Great-Britain and France.

Article IV. FOR adding a greater ſtrength to the Peace which is reſtored, and to the faithful Friendſhip which is never to be violated, and for cutting off all Occaſions of Diſtruſt, which might at any time ariſe from the eſtabliſhed Right and Order of the Hereditary Succeſſion to the Crown of Great-Britain, and the Limitation thereof by the Laws of Great-Britain (made and enacted in the Reigns of the late King William the Third, of glorious Memory, and of the preſent Queen) to the Iſſue of the aboveſaid Queen, and in default thereof, to the moſt ſerene Princeſs Sophia, Dowager of Brunſwick-Hanover, and her Heirs in the Proteſtant Line of Hanover. That therefore the ſaid Succeſſion may remain ſafe and ſecure, the moſt Chriſtian King ſincerely and ſolemnly acknowledges the aboveſaid Limitation of the Succeſſion to the Kingdom of Great-Britain, and on the Faith and Word of a King, on the Pledge of his own and his Succeſſors Honour, he does declare and engage, That he accepts and approves the ſame, and that his Heirs and Succeſſors do and ſhall accept and approve the ſame for ever. And under the ſame Obligation of the Word and Honour of a King, the moſt Chriſtian King promiſes, That no one beſides the Queen her ſelf, and her Succeſſors, according to the Series of the ſaid Limitation, ſhall ever by him, or by his Heirs or Succeſſors, be acknowledged, or reputed to be King or Queen of Great-Britain. And for adding more ample Credit to the ſaid Acknowledgment and Promiſes, the moſt Chriſtian King does engage, That whereas the Perſon who, in the Life-time of the late King James the Second, did take upon him the Title of Prince of Wales, and ſince his Deceaſe, that of King of Great-Britain, is lately gone of his own Accord, out of the Kingdom of France, to reſide in ſome other Place, he the aforeſaid moſt Chriſtian King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, will take all poſſible Care, that he ſhall not at any time hereafter, or under any Pretence whatſoever, return into the Kingdom of France, or any the Dominions thereof.

Article V. Moreover the moſt Chriſtian King Promiſes, as well in his own Name, as in that of his Heirs and Succeſſors, That they will at no time whatever Diſturb, or give any Moleſtation to the Queen of Great-Britain, her Heirs and Succeſſors, deſcended from the aforeſaid Proteſtant Line, who Poſſeſs the Crown of Great-Britain, and the Dominions belonging thereunto. Neither will the aforeſaid moſt Chriſtian King, or any one of his Heirs, give at any time any Aid, Succour, Favour, or Counſel, directly or indirectly, by Land, or by Sea, in Money, Arms, Ammunition, Warlike Proviſion, Ships, Soldiers, Seamen, or any other Way, to any Perſon or Perſons whoſoever they be, who for any Cauſe, or under any Pretext whatſoever, ſhould hereafter endeavour to oppoſe the ſaid Succeſſion, either by open War, or by fomenting Seditions, and forming Conſpiracies againſt ſuch Prince or Princes who are in Poſſeſſion of the Throne of Great-Britain, by Virtue of the Acts of Parliament aforementioned, or againſt that Prince or Princeſs, to whom the Succeſſion to the Crown of Great-Britain ſhall be open according to the ſaid Acts of Parliament.

Part of Article VI. The moſt Chriſtian King conſents and engages, that he will not, for the Intereſt of his Subjects, hereafter endeavour to obtain, or accept of any other Uſage of Navigation and Trade to Spain, and the Spaniſh Indies, than what was practiſed there in the Reign of the late King Charles the Second of Spain, or than what ſhall likewiſe be fully given and granted at the ſame time to other Nations and People, concerned in Trade.

Article IX. The moſt Chriſtian King ſhall take Care that all the Fortifications of the City of Dunkirk be razed, that the Harbour be filled up, and that the Sluices or Moles which ſerve to cleanſe the Harbour be Levelled, and that at the ſaid King's own Expence, within the ſpace of Five Months after the Conditions of Peace are Concluded and Signed; That is to ſay, the Fortifications towards the Sea, within the ſpace of Two Months, and thoſe towards the Land, together with the ſaid Banks, within Three Months; on this expreſs Condition alſo, that the ſaid Fortifications, Harbour, Moles or Sluices, be never Repaired again. All which ſhall not however be begun to be Ruined, till after that every thing is put into his Chriſtian Majeſty's Hands, which is to be given him, inſtead thereof, or as an Equivalent.

Part of Article X. The ſaid moſt Chriſtian King ſhall reſtore to the Kingdom and Queen of Great-Britain, to be poſſeſſed in full Right for ever, the Bay and Streights of Hudſon, together with all Lands, Seas, Sea-Coaſts, Rivers, and Places ſituate in the ſaid Bay, and Streights, and which belong thereunto, no Tracts of Land or of Sea being excepted, which are at preſent poſſeſſed by the Subjects of France. All which, as well as any Buildings there made, in the Condition they now are, and likewiſe all Fortreſſes there erected, either before or ſince the French ſeized the ſame, ſhall, within Six Months from the Ratification of the preſent Treaty, or ſooner, if poſſible, be well and truely delivered to the Britiſh Subjects, having Commiſſion from the Queen of Great-Britain to demand and receive the ſame, entire and undemoliſhed, together with all the Cannon and Cannon-Ball which are therein, as alſo with a Quantity of Powder, if it be there found, in proportion to the Cannon-Ball, and with the other Proviſion of War uſually belonging to Cannon.

Article XII. The moſt Chriſtian King ſhall take care to have delivered to the Queen of Great-Britain, on the ſame Day that the Ratifications of this Treaty ſhall be exchanged, Solemn and Authentick Letters, or Inſtruments, by Virtue whereof it ſhall appear that the Iſland of St. Chriſtophers is to be poſſeſſed alone hereafter by Britiſh Subjects, likewiſe all Nova Scotia or Accadie, with its ancient Boundaries, as alſo the City of Port-Royal, now called Annapolis-Royal, and all other things in thoſe Parts, which depend on the ſaid Lands and Iſlands, together with the Dominion, Propriety, and Poſſeſſion of the ſaid Iſlands, Lands, and Places, and all Right whatſoever, by Treaties, or by any other Way obtained, which the moſt Chriſtian King, the Crown of France, or any the Subjects thereof, have hitherto had to the ſaid Iſlands, Lands, and Places, and the Inhabitants of the ſame, are yielded and made over to the Queen of Great-Britain, and to her Crown for ever, as the moſt Chriſtian King does at preſent yield and make over all the Particulars aboveſaid; and that in ſuch ample Manner and Form, that the Subjects of the moſt Chriſtian King ſhall hereafter be excluded from all kind of Fiſhing in the ſaid Seas, Bays, and other Places, on the Coaſts of Nova-Scotia, that is to ſay, on thoſe which lie towards the Eaſt, within 30 Leagues, beginning from the Iſland commonly called Sable, incluſively, and thence ſtretching along towards the South-Weſt.

Article XIII. The Iſland called Newfoundland, with the adjacent Iſlands, ſhall from this time forward, belong of Right wholly to Britain; and to that end the Town and Fortreſs of Placentia, and whatever other Places in the ſaid Iſland, are in the Poſſeſſion of the French, ſhall be yielded and given up, within Seven Months from the Exchange of the Ratifications of this Treaty, or ſooner, if poſſible, by the moſt Chriſtian King to thoſe who have a Commiſſion from the Queen of Great-Britain, for that purpoſe. Nor ſhall the moſt Chriſtian King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or any of their Subjects, at any time hereafter lay Claim to any Right to the ſaid Iſland and Iſlands, or to any Part of it, or them. Moreover it ſhall not be Lawful for the Subjects of France, to fortify any Place in the said Island of Newfoundland, or to erect any Buildings there, besides Stages made of Boards, and Huts necessary and usual for drying of Fish; or to resort to the said Island, beyond the time necessary for Fishing and drying of Fish. But it shall be allowed to the Subjects of France, to catch Fish, and to dry them on Land, in that Part only, and in no other besides that, of the said Island of Newfoundland, which stretches from the Place called Cape Bonavista, to the Northern Point of the said Island, and from thence running down by the Western Side, reaches as far as the Place called Point Riche. But the Island called Cape Breton, as also all others, both in the Mouth of the River of St. Lawrence, and in the Gulph of the same Name, shall hereafter belong of Right to the French; and the most Christian King shall have all manner of Liberty to fortify any Place, or Places there.

Article XX. Just and reasonable Satisfaction shall be given to all and singular the Allies of the Queen of Great-Britain, in those Matters which they have a right to demand from France.

Article XXI. The most Christian King will, in consideration of the Friendship of the Queen of Great-Britain, Grant, that in making the Treaty with the Empire, all things concerning the State of Religion in the aforesaid Empire, shall be settled conformable to the Tenor of the Treaties of Westphalia, so that it shall plainly appear, that the most Christian King neither will have, nor would have had any Alteration made in the said Treaties.
